

I would like to urge you to make the defence of the individual or small organisations the priority when they speak out against large companies or public bodies in the public interest and remove all risk of prosecution under the defamation law. Otherwise the financial inequalities make it possible for the larger bodies to bully our society into submission and harm.

There is clearly no case for malicious lie spreading but I believe that can be countered under other laws.

Dr Tina Diggory